

2021 Calendar of Events

In 2021, the official U.S. Department of State celebrations for International Education Week ran from November 15 to 19. However, to provide additional flexibility for event planning and further elevate global engagement at Nebraska, IEW at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln celebration was extended to a month-long celebration from November 1 to 24, 2021.

Monday, November 1

Visit with Playwright Titaua Porcher

1:30 p.m.

Join the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures for a chat with Université de la Polynésie Française professor and playwright Titaua Porcher, who wrote Hina, Maui et compagnie (2018). The play is inspired by the pan-Polynesian legends of the warrior demigod Maui and Hina.

Hosted via Zoom at <https://go.unl.edu/porcher>.

Slavic Halloween: Rusalia

3:00 - 5:00 p.m..

Join the UNL Russian Club for a celebration of Slavic Halloween: Rusalia! Learn about the traditions and history of Slavic fortune-telling, create a handmade doll, join in for fun contests and enjoy tea and treats.

Oldfather Hall, 1126

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Tuesday, November 2

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

11:00 a.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Russian Language Center

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Visit the Russian Language Center to learn more about the Russian language and meet student tutors to practice your skills. All experiences are welcome!

Oldfather Hall, 1126

Shotokan Ohshima Karate-do & Self-Defense

5:45 - 7:45 p.m.

Challenge yourself with a Shotokan Karate, a traditional Japanese Karate that focuses on powerful moments for self-defense. No prior experience is required! The class is led by UNL Shotokan Karate Club, which was established in 1994.

Nebraska City Union, Ballroom

Facing Immigrant Exclusion: Then and Now FEATURED

7:00 p.m.

Shoba Sivaprasad Wadhia, an associate dean for diversity, equity and inclusion and a clinical professor of law at Penn State Law, will discuss the role of prosecutorial discretion in immigration law and the intersections of race, national security and immigration. The presentation is part of the E.N. Thompson Forum on World Issues, a cooperative project partnership among the Cooper Foundation, Lied Center for Performing Arts, and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, established in 1988. Tickets can be reserved through the Lied Center, with seating on a first-come, first-served basis.

Lied Center for Performing Arts

Wednesday, November 3

Nebraska Research Days Keynote featuring Anna Gifty Opoku-Agyeman

11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Meet Anna Gifty Opoku-Agyeman, a Ghanaian-born American activist, a public policy doctoral student at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government, writer and co-founder of Sadie Collective. This nonprofit organization provides Black women, students and professionals in quantitative sciences-related fields with the resources they need to succeed. Opoku-Agyeman's expertise in diversity, equity and inclusion within academia and the workplace are highly sought after by companies and campuses across the country. The Harvard alum has also been featured in The Economist, Wall Street Journal, New York Times, NPR, Forbes and Newsweek. Hosted by the Office of Research and Economic Development, Nebraska Research Days celebrates and showcases research, scholarly and creative activity. In-person and virtual participation offered. Registration is required.

Nebraska East Union, Great Plains Room.

Exploring Human Services Through Global Experiences FEATURED

2:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Join the College of Education and Human Sciences on a virtual panel that discusses human services and education through global lenses.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://go.unl.edu/cehsconversation>.

Spanish Conversation Table

3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Spanish Language? Come to the Spanish Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanishconvotable>.

Spanish Cultural Club

3:30 - 4:20 p.m.

Explore the Spanish culture and language and discuss current events in Latin America and Spain.

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanish-culturalclub>

Japanese Conversation Table

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

A weekly gathering hosted by the Kawasaki Reading Room where students can practice their Japanese language skills and build on what they have worked on in their Japanese courses.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

Middle Eastern and North African Student Association - Make Your Own Evil Eye Bracelet

5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

Join the Middle Eastern and North African Student Association to make an "Evil Eye." The design of "Evil Eye" jewelry and ornament was historically seen as an ancient symbol of protection from jealousy or troubled thoughts. The "Evil Eye" belief was prominent in Middle Eastern, Mediterranean and Greek cultures.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, Ubuntu Room 202

Mexican American Student Association (MASA)

5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Anyone interested in learning about Latin cultures and meeting people from Latin and other backgrounds is invited to meet the Mexican American Student Association (MASA), established in 1970 to create a community as a home away from home for Latin students who transitioned to college. Today, MASA has continued to raise awareness of Latin cultures and traditions to campus and the Lincoln community.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, Unity Room 212

Cultural Ambassadors Program

6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Learn about the Cultural Ambassadors Program, where you can develop your leadership skills, become involved on campus and build relationships with international and domestic students.

Nebraska City Union, Regency B-C

Medical Students United w/Neighbors Across America

7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Learn about a new student organization, MUNA, which stands for Medical Students United with Neighbors across America. Created in response to the Covid-19 pandemic, MUNA has worked on service projects dedicated to public health and service to refugees and immigrant families in the City of Lincoln. Its general meetings may include speakers, panels, workshops and interactive activities.

Nebraska City Union, Chimney Rock

Thursday, November 4

Russian Conversation Hour

9:30 a.m.

Are you interested in the Russian Language? Come to the Russian Conversation Hour to learn more about the Russian language and meet new friends from Tyumen University. All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/russian-convohour>

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

1:00 p.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Book Launch | Rhymes with Fighter: Clayton Yeutter, American Statesman

3:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Join the Yeutter Institute of International Trade and Finance to celebrate the release of the book Rhymes with Fighter: Clayton Yeutter, American Statesman, along with a discussion with author and an associate professor at the College of Journalism and Mass Communications Joseph Weber, as well as trade experts.

There will be a book signing and reception immediately following the program. Registration is required by Oct. 27

Sheldon Art Museum

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

La Table Française

4:30 - 6:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the French Language? Come to the French Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Yia Yia's, by 14th and O St.

International Student Advisory Board

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Meet the International Student Advisory Board (ISAB). This student-recognized organization advocates for all international students by uplifting the students' voices, raising awareness of issues international students face and actively ensuring an inclusive community for international students. Join ISAB and complete this interest form to be contacted for future steps.

Nebraska City Union, Heritage Room

Vietnamese Student Association

6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Learn about UNL Vietnamese Student Association, a recognized student organization that promotes Vietnamese cultures on campus. The group aims to promote, preserve, and educate students on campus about Vietnamese culture to build a long-lasting Vietnamese community on campus. It also serves as a home for all students who are involved in the Vietnamese and Vietnamese-American communities.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, Unity Room 212

Friday, November 5

Tea Time Friday

11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Students, faculty and staff can enjoy a variety of different teas and snacks. To support learning the Japanese language and culture within the university and Lincoln's diverse communities, students can also learn about the Kawasaki Reading Room's resources, such as music, arts, crafts, and a collection of more than 7,000 books.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

Arabic Conversation Table

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Arabic language and culture? RSVP to the Arabic Conversation Table to learn more about the Arabic cultures of art, calligraphy, and music and practice your language skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/arabic-convotable>

Global Remote Internships Information Session FEATURED

3:00 p.m.

Gain real-world experience, grow your professional network, and earn academic credit - all without leaving home! Participate in a virtual internship for approximately 12 hours a week this spring with an organization located in Australia, Spain or Vietnam. The program is open to all majors. The Education Abroad Office will hold an informational session for students interested in applying.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://go.unl.edu/globalremoteintern-infosession>

Saturday, November 6

India Student Association

8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Learn about Indian Student Association, a recognized student organization that holds a collection of cultural, social, social justice and philanthropic events that connect the campus community with Indian heritage and culture.

Nebraska East Union, Garden Room

Diwali Night 2021 FEATURED

5:30 - 10:00 p.m.

Join the Indian Student Association (ISA) at UNL and the Indian Association of Nebraska-Lincoln (IANL) to celebrate Diwali, one of India's largest cultural festivals. The Diwali Night 2021 will include performances, dance and traditional Indian food. This year's Diwali Night will be one to remember! Fundraising support to ISA and IANL to assist the South Asian community is welcome.

Nebraska East Union, Great Plains Room

Sunday, November 7

Afghan Student Association

11:45 a.m. - 12:45 p.m.

For the first time since 2008, the Afghan Student Association is on UNL's campus. The group aims to unify Afghan students and community and invite those interested in experiencing Afghan culture through cultural knowledge and community engagement.

Nebraska City Union, Food Court A

Monday, November 8

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Tuesday, November 9

Webinar: Listening for America

9:30 a.m.

Motivated by the "disconnect between policy makers in Washington and everyone else," Catherine Novelli, a former trade negotiator and State Department official, set off on a nationwide listening tour in an effort to understand how individuals and small businesses experience the international trade and how it affects their communities.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://yeutter-institute.unl.edu/webinar-listening-america>

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

11:00 a.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

International Student Career Pathway FEATURED

12:00 - 3:00 p.m.

International Student Advisory Board (ISAB) will be hosting a panel discussion, where international alumni speak about their experiences of job search processes and professional journey. Following the panel, Career Services and Office of Graduate Studies will provide an opportunity to help review résumés, cover letters, and LinkedIn profiles. A chance to take a professional headshot will also be available.

Nebraska City Union, Heritage Room

Russian Language Center

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Visit the Russian Language Center to learn more about the Russian language and meet student tutors to practice your skills. All experiences are welcome!

Oldfather Hall, 1126

CAS Inquire: Me Too in the Renaissance

5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Nora Martin Peterson, associate professor of French Cultural Studies, will discuss the root connection of the #metoo movement to French Renaissance images and texts. The presentation will learn about the parallel narrative of victim-blaming between the 21st century and the Renaissance.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://go.unl.edu/casingNOV>

Wednesday, November 10

Global Hot Drinks FEATURED

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Let's celebrate cultures and traditions of students that make Husker a global community, with traditional hot drinks from Mexico, Malaysia, United Kingdom, Vietnam, India and Japan. All are welcome to grab a complimentary drink and learn about the story behind each cup!

The International Student and Scholar Office (ISSO), Office of Academic Success and Intercultural Services (OASIS) and Kawasaki Reading Room will host the celebration, with funding and support from Programs in English as a Second Language (PIESL) and the Hospitality, Restaurant and Tourism Management Department.

Henzlik Hall, adjacent to Pixel Lab

Spanish Conversation Table

3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Spanish Language? Come to the Spanish Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanishconvotable>.

Japanese Conversation Table

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

A weekly gathering hosted by the Kawasaki Reading Room where students can practice their Japanese language skills and build on what they have worked on in their Japanese courses.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

11:00 a.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Mexican American Student Association (MASA)

5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Anyone interested in learning about Latin cultures and meeting people from Latin and other backgrounds is invited to meet the Mexican American Student Association (MASA), established in 1970 to create a community as a home away from home for Latin students who transitioned to college. Today, MASA has continued to raise awareness of Latin cultures and traditions to campus and the Lincoln community.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, Unity Room 212

Thursday, November 11

Russian Conversation Hour

9:00 a.m.

Are you interested in the Russian Language? Come to the Russian Conversation Hour to learn more about the Russian language and meet new friends from Tyumen University. All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/russian-convohour>

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

11:00 a.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

CASNR Professional Language Café Drop-In: Portuguese FEATURED

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Stop by to practice your language in the context of your discipline: whether that's your classes, research or future professional interests! No matter where you are in your language journey, we'd love to have you visit the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR) Global Learning Hub and gain experience speaking about your work or studies in Portuguese. Stop by, grab a coffee, tea + treats, network with others on campus and practice your language skills!

CASNR Global Learning Hub, East Campus, Agricultural Hall 202

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

La Table Française

4:30 - 6:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the French Language? Come to the French Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Yia Yia's, by 14th and O St.

BOM: Korean Culture Club

5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

Learn all things about Korean cultures– K-pop, K-drama, Korean food, Korean language (Hangeul) and more through BOM: Korean Culture Club, a recognized student organization whose mission is to introduce Korean culture to a broader audience.

Nebraska City Union, Food Court B

CollectionTalk: Artist Odili Donald Odita and podcast host Tyler Green

5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

Join Sheldon Art Museum to virtually meet artist Odili Donald Odita and art critic Tyler Green. Born in Nigeria and raised in Ohio, Odita makes large paintings and murals that combine disparate influences, including African textiles, science fiction hyperspace, painted clay walls of homes in West Africa, op art and hard-edged abstraction of the 1960s. His painting Passage is currently on view at Sheldon in the exhibition Point of Departure. Green is a historian, art critic, and producer and host of the Modern Art Notes podcast.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://go.unl.edu/odita>

African Student Association

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Meet the African Student Association, a recognized student organization that promotes solidarity among students of African heritage and encourages cultural, economic and technological collaboration between Africa and the world.

Nebraska City Union, Centennial Room 224

International Student Advisory Board

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Meet the International Student Advisory Board (ISAB). This student-recognized organization advocates for all international students by uplifting the students' voices, raising awareness of issues international students face and actively ensuring an inclusive community for international students. Join ISAB and complete this interest form to be contacted for future steps.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, OASIS Lounge

French Club: The Intouchables

8:30 p.m.

Join the UNL French Club for its first movie night showing of The Intouchables. Bring your own charcuterie board.

Burnett Hall, 302

Friday, November 12

Tea Time Friday

11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Students, faculty and staff can enjoy a variety of different teas and snacks. To support learning the Japanese language and culture within the university and Lincoln's diverse communities, students can also learn about the Kawasaki Reading Room's resources, such as music, arts, crafts, and a collection of more than 7,000 books. A special matcha tea ceremony will also be available for students to enjoy.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

CASNR Professional Language Café Drop-In: Spanish FEATURED

12:30-1:30 p.m.

Stop by to practice your language in the context of your discipline: whether that's your classes, research or future professional interests! No matter where you are in your language journey, we'd love to have you visit the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR) Global Learning Hub and gain experience speaking about your work or studies in Spanish. Stop by, grab a coffee, tea + treats, network with others on campus and practice your language skills!

CASNR Global Learning Hub, East Campus, Agricultural Hall 202

IEW International Fellowships for Students FEATURED

12:00 - 1:00 pm

Are you an undergraduate student interested in building stronger relationships between nations and cultures? The Office of National & International Fellowships advises applicants for undergraduate and graduate study abroad scholarships and English teaching opportunities! We will discuss the Fulbright U.S. Student Program, Gilman Scholarship, Critical Language Scholarship, Boren Awards, Cargill Global Scholars, UK Summer Institutes, DAAD German Academic Exchange, Marshall Scholarship, Mitchell Scholarship, Gates Cambridge Scholarship, Churchill Scholarship, Rhodes Scholarship, and Schwarzman Scholars.

Nebraska City Union, Chimney Rock Room

Islamophobia: The Myths, Roots, and Rise

12:10 - 1:10 p.m.

Join the Muslim Law Student Association and Khaled A. Beydoun, an associate professor of law at the University of Detroit Mercy School and the author of critically acclaimed American Islamophobia: Understanding the Roots and Rise of Fear in discussing the legal construction of Arab and Muslim American identity, the foundational and modern development of Islamophobia, and the intersection of national security policy, civil liberties and citizenship. Attorneys requiring CLE credit and those attending remotely should register in advance. This lecture is supported by the American Constitutional Society, Equal Justice Society and Multicultural Legal Society.

Nebraska College of Law, McCollum Hall, Auditorium

Arabic Conversation Table

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Arabic language and culture? RSVP to the Arabic Conversation Table to learn more about the Arabic cultures of art, calligraphy, and music and practice your language skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/arabic-convotable>

Dr. Amano Lecture FEATURED

3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Join Professor Ikuho Amano of the Department Modern Languages and Literatures to discuss the implications of abnormal climate conditions portrayed in the recent anime, "Weathering with You." While the excessive outpouring theme in the anime is not a poetic illustration of climate, it reflects an ongoing reality that has provoked regional disaster in Japan. The talk also dives deeper into philosophical questions regarding ancient and modern industrial times. Registration is required. Email kawasakireadingroom@gmail.com.

Nebraska City Union, Chimney Rock Room

Czech Social: Join the Bohemians and Dissidents FEATURED

6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Have you traveled, studied or lived in the Czech Republic? Do you speak any Czech words? Are you simply interested in studying abroad and learning more about the region, literature, culture, history, arts and heritage connection? Are you also interested in learning about Czech, Slavic or other European languages? Join the UNL Czech Komenský Club for the fall Czech social to meet old friends and make new ones! Everyone is welcome!

Yia Yia's, by 14th and O St.

Saturday, November 13

CEHS CARES: Refugee Donation Drive FEATURED

10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

The College of Education and Human Sciences will hold a donation drive and awareness event for refugees who will arrive in Nebraska and who have called Nebraska home. The event will feature student organizations, cultural food trucks and local non-profits to help attendees immerse in different cultures represented in the community, learn about our neighbors and connect with anyone from all backgrounds.

East Campus Mall

Hangul Night

6:30 - 9:00 p.m.

Join the Korean Student Association to celebrate the creation of Hangul, the Korean alphabet created by King Sejong in 1446 because he believed in the rights of all people to be able to read and write.

Nebraska City Union, Centennial

Monday, November 15

CAST's World DownSideUp FEATURED

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Join the Center for Academic Success and Transition (CAST) to learn about how you can get outside of your comfort zone and seeing the world in a new way through an interactive upside-down map trivia game. There will be a chance for you to win a prize!

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

SGIS Colloquium Series Presents: Dr. Lisa DiGiovanni: " Militarized Masculinity and Torture"

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Join Dr. Lisa DiGiovanni, the author of "Masculinity and Torture," to discuss the concept of militarized masculinity in Spain and Chile. This colloquium series, hosted by the School of Global Integrative Studies, aims to better shed light on the connection between masculinity, militarism, and violence to understand the causes and consequences of dictatorial brutality.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://go.unl.edu/digiovanni>

Meet the Czech writer and activist Magdalena Platzova: Reading and Discussion FEATURED

12:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Meet the renown Czech writer Magdalena Platzova who participated in the student demonstrations in 1989 Velvet Revolution that brought down the Iron Curtain.

Sponsored by the UNL Czech Studies and the Department of Modern and Languages and Literatures, Platzova will read from her work and discuss her activist experiences and work to follow.

Hosted in person at Burnett Hall 301 or via Zoom at <https://go.unl.edu/platzova>

College of Engineering - Huskers Abroad 101

12:00 p.m.

Engineering students are invited to attend a Engineering Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/engineering-101>.

Nebraska Hall, Olsson Room of the Engineering Student Services Office W204.

IEW International Fellowships for Students FEATURED

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Are you an undergraduate student interested in building stronger relationships between nations and cultures? The Office of National & International Fellowships advises applicants for undergraduate and graduate study abroad scholarships and English teaching opportunities! We will discuss the Fulbright U.S. Student Program, Gilman Scholarship, Critical Language Scholarship, Boren Awards, Cargill Global Scholars, UK Summer Institutes, DAAD German Academic Exchange, Marshall Scholarship, Mitchell Scholarship, Gates Cambridge Scholarship, Churchill Scholarship, Rhodes Scholarship, and Schwarzman Scholars.

Hosted via Zoom.

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Multicultural Mixer

6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Faculty, staff, and students are invited to the Multicultural Mixer to learn from a panel discussion "Unpacking BIPOC," examining the term – which stands for Black, Indigenous, People of Color – in depth through sociopolitical lenses. After the panel, attendees will have the opportunity to network. The mixer is hosted by the Office of Academic Success and Intercultural Services (OASIS), Student Advisory Board (OSAB) and the Chancellor's Commission on the Status of People of Color (CCSPC). Space is limited to 30 people. Registration is required.

Nebraska City Union, Heritage Room

Education Abroad Photo Contest DEADLINE FEATURED

Before 11:59 p.m.

Enter the Education Abroad Photo Contest by submitting a photo of you demonstrating your Husker spirit when you participated in Education Abroad programs in spring 2020, summer 2021 or fall 2021. Submit your photo by 11:59 p.m., November 15, on this entry form. Students who meet the photo contest requirements and are selected can receive a $50.00 Nebraska Bookstore gift card. Go to <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/photo-contest-0>.

Tuesday, November 16

CAST's World DownSideUp FEATURED

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Join the Center for Academic Success and Transition (CAST) to learn about how you can get outside of your comfort zone and seeing the world in a new way through an interactive upside-down map trivia game. There will be a chance for you to win a prize!

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

College of Engineering - Huskers Abroad 101

10:00 a.m.

Engineering students are invited to attend a Engineering Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/engineering-101>.

Nebraska Hall, Olsson Room of the Engineering Student Services Office W204.

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

11:00 a.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Cloth and Culture: Quilted Objects from Around the World. FEATURED

12:00 - 12:45 p.m.

Join International Quilt Museum Curator of International Collections Marin Hanson for a virtual lunch exploration of quilts and clothing from around the world. The museum hosts the world's largest publicly held quilt collection, with quilts dating from the 1600s to the present from more than 60 countries. Behind each quilt, there's a journey to be shared.

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/clothandculture-world>

Cooking, Culture & CASNR: Indian Cuisine FEATURED

12:00 - 1:30 p.m.

Do you want to expand your culinary repertoire and learn about different cultures? Join the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR) Global Learning Hub and the Wellness Kitchen to learn more about Indian cuisine, agriculture and how you can prepare three authentic recipes! The Class will be led by local chef Amrita Mahapatra, and free samples of tandoori chicken, sautéed vegetables and naan will be provided. A student guest will also share how the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources (IANR) and CASNR research bridges the distance between the wonderful Indian food many of us enjoy and the agricultural practices that support it. Registration is not required but is strongly encouraged to secure one's spot.

East Campus Wellness Kitchen

Russian Language Center

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Visit the Russian Language Center to learn more about the Russian language and meet student tutors to practice your skills. All experiences are welcome!

Oldfather Hall, 1126

Edyther Wiebers International Studies Program Scholarship Annual

Reception FEATURED

3:30 - 5:30 p.m

The Education Abroad Office (EAO) celebrates students who are the recipients of the Edyther Wiebers International Studies Program Scholarship. The scholarship is awarded annually to undergraduate students seeking to build their foreign language skills abroad. The reception will feature previous awardees discussing their study abroad experiences.

Nebraska City Union, Platte River Room

Global Café and Connections FEATURED

5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

As the signature event of 2021 International Education Week celebrations, hosted by the College of Business and Global Affairs, all students are invited to join this evening and experiencing a taste of the world. As we highlight local restaurant entrepreneurs, we will be sharing stories of success in a new culture. Registration is required at <https://go.unl.edu/cafe>.

Hawks Hall, Atrium

Shotokan Ohshima Karate-do & Self-Defense

5:45 - 7:45 p.m.

Challenge yourself with a Shotokan Karate, a traditional Japanese Karate that focuses on powerful moments for self-defense. No prior experience is required! The class is led by UNL Shotokan Karate Club, which was established in 1994.

Nebraska City Union, Ballroom

Wednesday, November 17

Global Nebraska Coalition on Diversity and Inclusion: Guest Lecture - Ecuador FEATURED

9:00 - 10:15 a.m.

Join the Global Nebraska Coalition on Diversity and Inclusion (GNCDI), which represents the University of Nebraska Lincoln's global support staff and units, to learn about diversity and inclusion around the world. Attendees will hear from two faculty members from Ecuador: Jackeline Gallegos and Ana María Morales. Gallegos, an afro-descendant activist, will discuss the public mass reaction in Ecuador to the murder of George Floyd and the BLM movement, and the discussion will be in Spanish and translated by Angelica Ordoñez. Morales will then discuss national movements and diversity and inclusion efforts for marginalized groups and indigenous populations within Ecuador.

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/gncdi-ecuador>

CAST's World DownSideUp FEATURED

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Join the Center for Academic Success and Transition (CAST) to learn about how you can get outside of your comfort zone and seeing the world in a new way through an interactive upside-down map trivia game. There will be a chance for you to win a prize!

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Global Cafe - Materiality, Social Memory and Identity Politics: Reflections on Maya Identity and Cultural Heritage at Copán, Honduras FEATURED

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Learn about the archaeological arguments on cultural links between past and present populations of Copán, Honduras and the plurality of modern social identity discourses. Centuries of indigenous discrimination and Spanish colonialism in the Maya area are linked to the construction of the nation-state in modern Honduras and an outcome of the anthropological discussion. This lecture, presented by Melvin Elisandro Garza who is a Copán-born Ph.D. candidate at the City University of New York and field archaeologist for Copán's Proyecto Rescate de Rosalila, aims for archaeologists and learners to rethink their past recollection and how it affects native populations and archaeological practices in the cultural heritage.

Hosted in person at Oldfather Hall 430 G and via Zoom at <https://go.unl.edu/copan>

International Trade Career Panel FEATURED

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Learn how careers in international trade span numerous roles and responsibilities across the government and private sectors. The Yeutter Institute of International Trade and Finance holds an informative trade career panel with speakers: Director of the US Commercial Service's Omaha office Meredith Bond, Under Secretary in Residence at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Institute of Agriculture Greg Ibach, Senior Manager for Revenue Management (Asia Export Solutions) at Tyson Foods Broderick Lewis and Manager for Advanced Analytics in John Deere's captive finance unit Anku Nath Mancini. The panelists will discuss a range of trade issues about their career journeys and get their advice on getting started on a career in trade!

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://yeutter-institute.unl.edu/webinar-international-trade-career-panel>

CASNR Faculty-Led Study Abroad Program Fair FEATURED

12:30 to 2:00 p.m.

Learn about the incredible faculty-led study abroad programs offered through the College of Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR). With a wide range of topics and locations, there's a program for almost all interests and post-graduation plans. Nebraska East Union

Oxford High Tea FEATURED

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Come learn all about the Nebraska at Oxford Program for Summer 2022 while enjoying English Tea!

Hawks Hall 231

Spanish Conversation Table

3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Spanish Language? Come to the Spanish Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanishconvotable>.

Spanish Cultural Club

3:30 - 4:20 p.m.

Explore the Spanish culture and language and discuss current events in Latin America and Spain.

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanish-culturalclub>

Japanese Conversation Table

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

A weekly gathering hosted by the Kawasaki Reading Room where students can practice their Japanese language skills and build on what they have worked their Japanese courses.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

College of Engineering - Huskers Abroad 101

4:00 p.m.

Engineering students are invited to attend a Engineering Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/engineering-101>.

Nebraska Hall, Olsson Room of the Engineering Student Services Office W204.

Huskers Abroad 101

4:30 p.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Mexican American Student Association (MASA)

5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Anyone interested in learning about Latin cultures and meeting people from Latin and other backgrounds is invited to meet the Mexican American Student Association (MASA), established in 1970 to create a community as a home away from home for Latin students who transitioned to college. Today, MASA has continued to raise awareness of Latin cultures and traditions to campus and the Lincoln community.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

See the World with Arts and Sciences: Summer Faculty-Led Programs Info Session FEATURED

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Learn about the incredible faculty-led summer study abroad programs offered through the College of Arts and Sciences (CAS). Programs are open to students from all majors and colleges. With a wide range of topics and locations, there's a program for almost all interests and post-graduation plans. Students unable to attend the informational session can make an individual appointment.

Oldfather Hall, 1007

Medical Students United w/Neighbors Across America

7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Learn about a new student organization, MUNA, which stands for Medical Students United with Neighbors across America. Created in response to the Covid-19 pandemic, MUNA has worked on service projects dedicated to public health and service to refugees and immigrant families in the City of Lincoln. Its general meetings may include speakers, panels, workshops and interactive activities.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, Ubuntu Room 202

Thursday, November 18

Russian Conversation Hour

9:00 a.m.

Are you interested in the Russian Language? Come to the Russian Conversation Hour to learn more about the Russian language and meet new friends from Tyumen University. All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom at <https://go.unl.edu/russian-convohour>

College of Engineering - Huskers Abroad 101

10:00 a.m.

Engineering students are invited to attend a Engineering Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/engineering-101>.

Nebraska Hall, Olsson Room of the Engineering Student Services Office W204.

College of Engineering International Coffee Hour FEATURED

10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

The College of Engineering recognizes the benefits of international education & exchange worldwide! Everyone is welcome to stop by and grab a coffee and pastry and share international experiences with students, staff and faculty.

Scott Campus of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, Peter Kiewit Institute Atrium and Lobby

CAST's World DownSideUp FEATURED

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Join the Center for Academic Success and Transition (CAST) to learn about how you can get outside of your comfort zone and seeing the world in a new way through an interactive upside-down map trivia game. There will be a chance for you to win a prize!

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

IAU Barcelona Summer Program

11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Learn all about the Institute for American Universities (IAU) Barcelona Summer Program! The program offers global business courses. You can meet Dr. Laurie Miller of the College of Business, who will lead the program and answer any questions you have!

Hawks Hall, North Entrance Lobby

November OASIS Lunch & Learn: Education Abroad Opportunities FEATURED

12 - 1:00 p.m.

Join the Office of Academic and Intercultural Services (OASIS) Lunch and Learn to find out more Education Abroad opportunities offered for students from all majors and interests.

Nebraska City Union, Ubuntu Room

CASNR Professional Language Café Drop-In: French FEATURED

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Stop by to practice your language in the context of your discipline: whether that's your classes, research or future professional interests! No matter where you are in your language journey, we'd love to have you visit the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR) Global Learning Hub and gain experience speaking about your work or studies in French. Stop by, grab a coffee, tea + treats, network with others on campus and practice your language skills!

CASNR Global Learning Hub, East Campus, Agricultural Hall 202

Huskers Abroad 101

1:00 p.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Global Greetings 101 FEATURED

2:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Come and learn common greetings and name pronunciations in many different languages, sponsored by Business International Student Association (BISA). Snacks are provided. The event is a fantastic opportunity to improve communication, networking, creative thinking and many other skills. All, from students, staff and faculty, are welcome!

Hawks Hall, 231

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

La Table Française

4:30 - 6:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the French Language? Come to the French Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Yia Yia's, by 14th and O St.

Expanding Minds: Perspectives from International UNL Students. FEATURED

5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

Students from Kenya, Nigeria, India, Mexico, China, Spain and Guatemala will share their perspectives as international students and combat some misconceptions about their home countries. The panel, hosted by the UNL Racial Justice Alliance, will discuss how the students have felt marginalized, affirmed and welcomed in the U.S.

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/expandingminds>

Modernity, Racism, and Migration: A Journey into the Zone of Being and Zone of Non-Being

5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

Join a Humanities on the Edge discussion about modernity, racism and migration with Ramon Grosfoguel, an associate professor in the Department of Ethnic Studies at UC Berkeley whose work on decolonization, international migration and the world system's political economy has been internationally recognized.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at go.unl.edu/grosfoguel

Attack on Titan with Professor Otaku FEATURED

5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

Back by popular demand, the Professor Otaku Lecture is here! Led by Dr. Sangjin Ryu from the College of Engineering, the lecture will connect the anime "Attack on Titan" with engineering and other technological concepts like 3D maneuvering equipment. Those with and without engineering or anime knowledge are invited. Registration is required. Email kawasakireadingroom@gmail.com

Nebraska City Union, Heritage Room

African Student Association

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Meet the African Student Association, a recognized student organization that promotes solidarity among students of African heritage and encourages cultural, economic and technological collaboration between Africa and the world.

Nebraska City Union, Centennial Room 224

International Student Advisory Board

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Meet the International Student Advisory Board (ISAB). This student-recognized organization advocates for all international students by uplifting the students' voices, raising awareness of issues international students face and actively ensuring an inclusive community for international students. Join ISAB and complete this interest form to be contacted for future steps.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, OASIS Lounge

Friday, November 19

College of Engineering International Coffee Hour FEATURED

10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

The College of Engineering recognizes the benefits of international education & exchange worldwide! Everyone is welcome to stop by and grab a coffee and pastry and share international experiences with students, staff and faculty.

Othmer Hall Lobby and Atrium, Ken Jones Welcome Center

CAST's World DownSideUp FEATURED

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Join the Center for Academic Success and Transition (CAST) to learn about how you can get outside of your comfort zone and seeing the world in a new way through an interactive upside-down map trivia game. There will be a chance for you to win a prize!

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Tea Time Friday

11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Students, faculty and staff can enjoy a variety of different teas and snacks. To support learning the Japanese language and culture within the university and Lincoln's diverse communities, students can also learn about the Kawasaki Reading Room's resources, such as music, arts, crafts, and a collection of more than 7,000 books.

Gaughan Multicultural Center, 302

Rwanda Summer 2022 Program Info Session FEATURED

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Learn about how you can combine your passions for entrepreneurship and travel! Through the summer program, you can take an entrepreneurship credit course while learning about Rwanda – the land of thousand hills.

Hawks Hall, 032

Arabic Conversation Table

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Arabic language and culture? RSVP to the Arabic Conversation Table to learn more about the Arabic cultures of art, calligraphy, and music and practice your language skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/arabic-convotable>

Monday, November 22

NUMSA Cultural Booth

1:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Learn about Malaysian culture and crafts with the Nebraska University Malaysian Student Association (NUMSA).

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Coffee Talks

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

A twice-weekly gathering for casual and social conversation between international and domestic students. Grab a beverage and join the chat to explore cultures, meet friends and learn about campus. All students are welcome.

Nebraska City Union, in the areas across Subway

Tuesday, November 23

Spanish Tutoring & Writing Center

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Students who want to become better writers and communicators in Spanish are encouraged to visit the Spanish Tutoring and Writing Center of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures. Tutoring assistance for students in a 100 to 400-level Spanish course is available.

Language Lounge, Burnett Hall, 302

Huskers Abroad 101

11:00 a.m.

Attend a Huskers Abroad 101 session to take the first step toward going abroad. This session will cover researching program options, selecting a program, funding and the timeline for the process.

Hosted via Zoom. Register at <https://educationabroad.unl.edu/huskers-abroad-101-registration>

Russian Language Center

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Visit the Russian Language Center to learn more about the Russian language and meet student tutors to practice your skills. All experiences are welcome!

Oldfather Hall, 1126

Wednesday, November 24

Black Wednesday Shopping FEATURED

11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Join the International Student and Scholar Office (ISSO) for a Black Wednesday Shopping and experience an American shopping tradition during the Thanksgiving holiday. Registration is $10.

Nebraska Crossing Outlets Mall

Spanish Conversation Table

3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Are you interested in the Spanish Language? Come to the Spanish Conversation Table to learn more about the language and practice your skills! All levels of experience are welcome!

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanishconvotable>.

Spanish Cultural Club

3:30 - 4:20 p.m.

Explore the Spanish culture and language and discuss current events in Latin America and Spain.

Hosted via Zoom. Go to <https://go.unl.edu/spanish-culturalclub>